Duchess of Fifth Avenue is a very romantic read, the first one I have read in some time. It's so appealing to read and feel a real romance blossom between Jesse and Lana, not simply the lust which is ubiquitous in romances nowadays, although the two show plenty of mutual attraction. A beautiful post-bedroom scene is just lovely, showing intimacy, anxiety and humor.

Duchess of Fifth Avenue : All About Romance

In 1885, during a rough crossing from Ireland to the United States, Lana Dunleavy made a promise to her best friend, Siobhan Riley, upon the birth of the latter's son. Should anything happen to Siobhan, Lana would take care of Colin, his father having already revealed his feckless nature. Both women barely scrape by ...
